Executive Summary

This is the third National Action Plan and contains updates and additions to previous plans. This plan should be read in conjunction with the previous National Action Plan for further background and context.

The purpose of this plan is to direct the All of Government (AoG) and nationwide effort during the next phase of the response to ensure operational alignment with the strategic intent. The plan is also a single reference for the National Crisis Management Centre (NCCMC) objectives and high-level actions during the transition to a revised AoG response model.

This plan is from 23 April 2020 until the next iteration of the All of Government instruction.

There are some key changes which build on previous versions. There is emphasis on relevant and achievable actions to simplify focus and support response activities in readiness for transition to steady-state management of the response to COVID-19. The plan is inclusive of immediate actions to prepare for contingency planning should a simultaneous event occur.

New Zealand's strategy remains to eliminate COVID-19 and to stamp out transmission within affected clusters. This is in line with The New Zealand Influenza Pandemic Plan and the four-level COVID-19 Alert system. Whilst this is a short-term plan, some actions are ongoing or will extend through to the medium-term.

The third National Action Plan does not supersede other operational plans but can be read alongside them, for example, the COVID-19 Māori Response Action Plan; the Ministry of Health, Health & Disability Response Plan, and; the New Zealand Influenza Pandemic Plan. This list is not exhaustive.

National Action Plan

Iwi/Māori Partnership

The All of Government (AoG) commitment to working in partnership with Māori has been recognised as a key component of the COVID-19 national response. Under Te Tiriti o Waitangi, the Crown and Māori are partners where Māori guide our response to achieve Māori aspirations.

Māori are recognised as a priority group in the national response to COVID-19. Therefore, the AoG response actions will contribute to the overall safety and wellbeing of the Māori people by strengthening coordination across priorities identified by Māori during the pandemic.

Mission statement

Uniting against COVID-19 to keep New Zealand sustainable and New Zealanders well and safe.

Together, we will do this by:

- Protecting people's health
- Slowing the spread, and
- Putting New Zealand in the best position for recovery

End state

We will know this National Action Plan has been achieved when:

- An effective transition to a steady-state, longer term management of the response to COVID-19 has been completed without any loss of the response momentum.

Correction: National Action Plan 2

Page 3 of the National Action Plan 2, Legislative section, states, "COVID-19 Ministerial Group passed the COVID-19 response (Taxation and Social Assistance Urgent Measures) Bill." This should state that Parliament passed the COVID-19 Response Bill.
